

ALUMINUM AND PLASTICS BLOWER SYSTEM

---

Blower/Fan:            Type:                    Industrial
                                                                                                 Forward curve belt-driven
                                                                                                 Multi vane type
                                                                                                 Dynamically balanced

Motor:                    10 HP
                                                                                                 415 volt / 3 phase / 50 hertz
                                                                                                 T.E.F.C. / E-PAC Motor / 1.5 Safety Factor
                                                                                                 Baldor, Toshiba or US Similar Brand

Include:                    Feed Chute and Discharge Chute
                                                                                                 Ducting (minimum 16" Diameter) with Special Elbow against Abrasion
                                                                                                 Steel support
                                                                                                 Protective Guard
                                                                                                 Maintenance Door

